WHITFIELD FLEES FROM KEGONSA AS POSSES CLOSE IN

A Cleveland policeman, broke from cover in a hazel grove outside of MacFarland Saturday morning and again eluded police officers and a large posse by making a temporary getaway in the large green automobile which he stole after escaping from police here Tuesday night.

The escaping fugitive was traced as far as Edgerton by police officers, headed by Lieut. Charles Nevel, Cleveland. They are now close on his trail, while the posse still hunts in the marshy country about Lake Kegonsa.

Seen by Several
Whitfield was seen by several people, according to police, speeding down the road between Stoughton and Edgerton. Officers are following him closely. It is reported here that the parking place of the fugitive's automobile was found by detectives early Saturday morning in a thick habel brush. Whitfield had gone, however, and his trail was immediately picked up. It led to Stoughton and then to Edgerton. From Edgerton the officers were at a loss to know which way the man had taken.

With automobiles speeding after him, Whitfield is believed to be near the end of his resources. Hunted like an animal he is using every ruse to make the escape which he expects means life or death to him.

SIGHTED RUNNING OUT OF MAC FARLAND GROVE
Madison, June 26.—Whitfield, sought as the murderer of Dennis Griffin, Cleveland policeman, was sighted by a member of a Madison posse at 3:30 a. m. when he ran out of a grove near MacFarland, police headquarters were notified.

Chicago police telephoned Madison Saturday to report that they have found the gun used by Whitfield to kill Patrolman Griffin. They claim Whitfield sold the revolver to a Chicago negro. This negro, according to Chicago police said that the alleged murderer had returned to Chicago on Wednesday and had attempted to sell him the large green automobile in which he escaped from Madison. This description of his whereabouts is said to be logical, he is now in Chicago.

Airplane Aids Pursuit.
An airplane has been enlisted in the hunt today and is circling the district around Lake Kegonsa and Lake Koshong near MacFarland, 12 miles from here.

Pictures of the district are being taken from the air to aid searchers in their hunt.

GIRL COMPANION OF SLAYER REACHES OHIO.
Cleveland, June 26.—A 14-year-old companion of John L. W. Whitfield, who fled from Cleveland Saturday morning and was whisked away immediately to police headquarters.

Miss Price was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Arthur Price, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Detective Conroy and Police Matron, Bishop of Cleveland brought the girl here from Chicago. There are no charges against Miss Price here. Her trip to Cleveland was made after her mother waived extradition in her behalf, because Marie is a minor.

"I hope they catch Whitfield now," Miss Price told Police Chief Grout. Mrs. Price said she hoped the case would be cleared up soon so she could get Marie home as soon as possible.

"She needs me," she said, "because of her delicate condition," the mother said.

JAPS BREAK GOOD FAITH IN CABLE AND RADIO ISSUE

Centers on Contract.
Briefly the controversy centers around the signing of a contract between the Chinese government at Peking and an American firm, the Federal Telegraph and Wireless company, now controlled by the American Radio corporation, for the construction of several high power radio stations to be owned and operated by the Chinese government. The Japanese protested and attempted to force China to cancel this contract, arguing that in 1918 they had obtained an exclusive monopoly for radio communication inside and outside of China. Such a contract does exist, though in Peking it is charged the arrangement was made with a group of corrupt officials in the Chinese government. The secret contract giving the Japanese a monopoly for 30 years was produced by the Japanese government after Secretary Hughes made inquiry in an endeavor to protect the American firm's rights.

U. S. Sees Violation
The Japanese argue priority of rights while the American government contends the monopoly violates the spirit and letter of the open-door policy which Japan is pledged in the Far East. The Japanese in their official statement base their case on the first three articles of the report made by the International Communication

Conference in Washington, copies of which evidently had not been sent to the American legation in Peking or generally distributed, but they throw an important light on the matter of cable and radio communication throughout the world. Here are the principles:

"First, that hereafter a permit shall be granted or renewed for the erection of radio stations for international communication without it being expressly declared that the permission does not confer a monopoly of exclusive rights of any kind.

"Second, that in principle they (the principal allied and associated powers) will not in the future support the erection of radio stations for international communication, in seeking exclusive cable or radio concessions from non-signatory states, provided that all states adhering to this international telegraph convention undertake the same obligation.

"Third, nevertheless, the powers do not intend to prejudice the development of communications by cable or radio by preventing the granting of exclusive or privileged concessions for a reasonable term of years in cases where the probable traffic would not be sufficient to yield a fair return upon the capital invested in more than one system for the operation of the service in question."

Suppressed Article.
Resting its case on the last article, the Japanese contend they are justified and that the powers sanctioned exceptional cases of monopoly. But the Japanese did not push the fourth and last article of the same agreement which throws an entirely different light on the matter. It says:

"Fourth, if objection is made by one of the signatories to the granting of renewal of an exclusive concession within a reasonable time after such power has been exercised, or after renewal, or of an application for such grant or renewal, the question shall be submitted by the countries in interest to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the international telegraph convention, or any convention of which it forms a part."

Rests on Treaty.
This article means that exceptions can be made only after conference of the powers and after arbitration. That's what the American government would like to do—submit the controversy to arbitration if necessary. But even the report of the International Communication conference is not the controlling argument of the American government's case. It rests on the nine power treaty, the provisions of freedom of commercial opportunity in the Far East and previous treaties between China and the United States. The American legation said in its last note:

"In conclusion, it is not too much to say that the American government has given evidence of regarding the execution of the Federal Telegraph and Wireless contract by the Chinese government as a most crucial test of the efficacy of the policy of equal opportunity in China. If the execution of this contract is prejudiced against all overseas radio development for thirty years for the benefit of one station, equal opportunity, whether for China among nations or for other nations in China, cannot be said to exist."

MAN SLAYS WOMAN, SELF IN ROCKFORD

Rockford.—Mrs. Daisy Anderson, 45, was shot and killed Thursday night by Fred Sweeney, 26, who then killed himself with the same gun.

Mrs. Alma Sweeney, wife of Fred, was away from home and her failure to return is believed to have saved her life.

Her husband many times had threatened to kill her and frequently quarreled because she kept company with Mrs. Anderson.

Sweeney was an overgrown veteran and badly gassed in France. His wife said his temper at times was uncontrollable.

THREE MORE BILLS VETOED

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Madison.—Three more bills received the disapproval of Governor Elaine Friday, as the executive continued to veto an unprecedented number of measures. The three bills acted on unfavorably include a measure relating to constitution amendments, one relating to evidence in personal injury actions, and the third regulating the employment of armed guards.

Large.—Byron Hanson, president of the freshman class of North Dakota Agricultural college, and Philip Fitzgerald, sophomore, captured in the class rush Wednesday by the opposing classes, were released.

SCREEN AND STAGE

ATTRACTIONS AT JANESVILLE
THEATRE WEEK OF
MAY 27-JUNE 2.

Saturday and Sunday—Vanderbilt and "The Midnight Bell."
Charles Ray.

REVERLY.
Sunday through Tuesday—"Peg O' My Heart," with Laurette Taylor.

Friday and Saturday—"Toll of the Sea," Anna May Wong and Kenneth Harlan.
Sunday—"The 11th Lover," Viola Dana.
Monday—"The Scarlet Car," Herbert Maylinson.
Tuesday—"The Ghost Breaker," Wallace Reid.

AT THE APOLLO.
Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood, to be seen at Apollo for five days next week, starting Monday, will be doubly interesting. The picture itself has been eagerly awaited after being heralded in all the biggest cities as one of the supreme achievements of the screen. The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse, "The Three Musketeers" and "Orphans of the Storm." It is one of those gigantic and beautiful masterpieces that no person at all interested in movies would think of missing. The admission price for Janesville is unusually attractive and reasonable.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS IN ROBIN HOOD

Then there is another great reason why this picture should be seen and that is because all proceeds are to be turned over to the Lions club to be added to the fund for the two performances at the high school of "The Bear Car" for purchasing the proposed bronze tablets carrying names of Janesville men who responded to the call of their country during the great war. But none should go to "Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood" feeling that they are donating that much money to this good cause—each person who goes is assured of much more than his money's worth in entertainment.

As Robin Hood, Douglas Fairbanks is the embodiment in all ways of that noble personality of 800 years ago as we of this modern day would understand and appraise him, while the production itself realistically presents the vivid color and stirring action of that romantically adventuresome past. Robin Hood has always been a popular legend, and the stories of this adventuresome character have come down through the ages better-liked at each re-telling.

ing. As pictured by Douglas Fairbanks in an outlay of more than $1,250,000, the story has now become immortalized on the screen.

The picture for the week-end, to be shown with vaudeville, combines mystery with action and excitement and also contains much comedy.

AT THE REVERLY.
There will be large changes at the Revery this approaching week, and each one will be of great interest. Little needs to be said about "Peg O' My Heart," for nearly everybody is familiar with this story when it was on the stage. And now Laurette Taylor, who played the part of Peg more than 1,100 times, has transferred her brilliant performance through a more permanent medium and through a medium which will allow thousands more to see her in this world-famous part than if she played it for year after year all over the country.

The story, when told, sounds rather trite—it tells of the story, uncultured Irish girl who falls heir to much money and undesired culture and refinement. Her old act and manner in the homes of the rich make the picture a sparkling comedy which will make the audience laugh and truly worth-while picture. Mahlon

LAURETTE TAYLOR In a Scene From PEG O' MY HEART

Hamilton plays the leading man. "Forget Me Not" is a special picture for Memorial day and is of the type which is keeping with the spirit of that day. It is the story of many estrangements and trials, and of final meeting and love. Bessie Love plays the part of the orphan who the wife-fidelity that always made her good in these parts, while Sarah Hughes will be good in the other juvenile part. The picture is said to have a great deal of human interest.

"Toll of the Sea" is the first great answer to the demand for colored motion pictures, and is of the type which has been lacking in the past. This one is declared to be a supreme achievement and has been greeted by the press and public with unqualified praise. The story is Chinese, the theme being that of "Madame Butterfly," and of the un-

250 WOMEN HEAR DR. SWIFT ADDRESS

Second Meeting Will be Saturday Night, and Third, Sunday.

Dr. Edith Hale Swift, New York City, talked to 250 women following a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday, on "The Home's Opportunity with the Child."

"It is no longer a question as to whether the young are to be educated in these matters," declared Dr. Swift, "the question is whether the home is going to let the other fellow beat us to it. The home has the first chance. If the home is silent the street will rush in."

Dr. Swift is a woman of wholesome personality who has the confidence of her audience. She stressed the need of cooperative effort among the mothers of the community for the establishment and maintenance of proper standards of youthful conduct, and announced that she will discuss the subject of community standards more fully in her address at the women's fraser meeting Sunday afternoon in the new high school. Her topic then will be "The Responsibility of the Community to its Youth."

Mrs. E. J. Manning presided at the luncheon.

Golden Eagle Annex Is Opened

Attractive women's clothes of the latest mode selling at attractive prices, make the new store of Levy's Annex, 13 West Milwaukee street, a popular one, and the store was crowded all day Saturday by women who eagerly searched for and found some excellent bargains. Windows are handsome and display some dresses, short coats and wraps, now in such demand, at prices quite low.

It is to be the policy of this store, which first opened its doors Saturday morning in the former location of the Solomon store, to carry a line of goods less expensive than those carried in the Golden Eagle, Levy's, next door. The two stores are under the same management.

The new store has been somewhat redecorated, and a coat of paint has added much to the appearance of the windows and the inside walls. Guy Briggs, the manager for this store as well as for the Golden Eagle, has stocked the store with goods which he purchased the last two weeks, it was announced.

Kiwanis Delegates Off to Atlanta

Harry S. Haggart, president of the Janesville Kiwanis club, accompanied by Mrs. Haggart, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weber, left Saturday for Atlanta, Ga., to attend the International Kiwanis convention.

"The fame of the Janesville club has spread and Mr. Haggart will deliver an address on the work being done in helping children. It appears that the Janesville club has gone further with the work than any other Kiwanis club."

Ray R. C. Peterson, district trustee of the Janesville club, has been requested to write an article for the International Kiwanis magazine on the same subject.

JUDGE AND PARTY ON NORTHERN TRIP

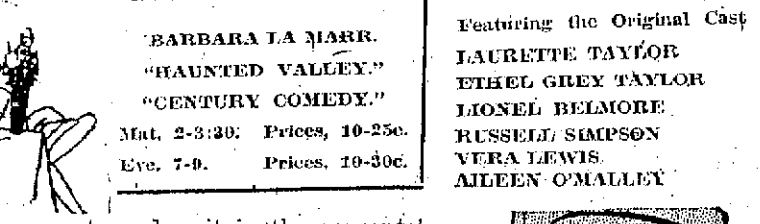

Judge Charles L. Field heads a party of four which left Janesville in his automobile, Saturday, bound for the northern part of the state. They plan to cover much of the ground along the Peshigo river, camp and fish. Accompanying Judge Field, head of the local Izak Walton, are Edward Kohler, C. Starr, Alwood, and Howard Green. They will return next Sunday. The county court will not be in session next week and the regular June term will open Tuesday, June 5.

PEG O' MY HEART
SPECIAL FOR MEMORIAL DAY—"FORGET ME NOTS"

There are many outstanding pigs. Walsh Brothers are bringing out High Pathmaster, a son of Pathmaster, a senior yearling, and this boar is a "ripper." While this sire may not be a perfect show boar his gets are what stamps the animal as a winner. The future litter of Walsh Brothers, sired by this boar, are remarkable pigs and will show to a good advantage at the state fair. There are about 50 spring pigs in the herd, nearly all sired by the High Pathmaster with the others by Big Great Sensation and Jack's Orion Sensation, both good rugged animals.

While Rock county lost one good Duroc show boar when the Corium farms purchased the herd boar of F. H. Arnold and Son, the age sire owned by Henry Wieland and Sons, Beloit, Valley Giant, the champion at Janesville last year, will show to a good advantage.

There are four full gilts in the Walsh herd, that many outside breeders are bidding for to strengthen their show herds.

Frank Johnson, Beloit, now has Golden Pathmaster, a noted here boar, by Pathmaster and raised a number of good spring pigs. He is in the fixity with a good litter.

R. J. Nelson, Clinton, is using Ames Sensation Agahi, a line-bred Great Orion Sensation sire, that has produced around 20 good spring pigs. This pig has great show possibilities as a junior yearling and will be brought out for the county show herd if nothing prevents.

W. V. Henry suffered heavy losses with his spring pigs but has about 15 that are good enough for sale and Henry is on to his job in culling the weak and for pork. For a herd boar this Clinton breeder is using a good son of Fashion Sensation from the Fashion-Croft herd.

J. J. McCann and Sons, Janesville, have about 45 spring pigs, the most of which will be culled and the good ones brought through for they are of good uniform type. For herd boars they are using Paramount Sensation, a state fair prize winner.

81 TO RECEIVE FIRST COMMUNION

Both Catholic Churches Plan Special Services for Children.

Eighty-one children, having been trained for several weeks, will receive holy communion for the first time in two Catholic churches Sunday morning. Twenty-eight are to be received at St. Mary's at 9 a. m. with impressive ceremonies while low mass will be said at St. Patrick's church at 7:30 a. m. for 53 communicants. At the same time in the evening, boys received at St. Patrick's in the morning will be enrolled in the Holy Name society and girls in the Sodality of Children of Mary.

School children at St. Mary's school have been rehearsing new hymns for communion for several weeks. Procession will start at the school building, in the following order: Acolytes, with processional cross and candles; flower girls, carrying fresh flowers; six small boys and girls in white conducting communicants to the altar steps; and the 28 members of the class.

After consecration of the mass, the flower girls will form a circle in the sanctuary, singing hymns to the Blessed Virgin. Sister Mary Michalski has trained the children in the ceremonies. The pastor, the Rev. Charles Olson, has been giving special instruction three times weekly after school for the past five weeks. Those in the class at St. Mary's church are: Francis Conway, Joseph Cahill, Floyd Dewey, Eugene Panning, Thomas Hampel, Leo Hansen, Alvin Jerg, Dorothy Marth, Emily Melan, Francis O'Grady, Bernard Peuter, Norbert Quackenbush, Elizabeth Joyce, David Donagan, Margaret Jorg, Ann McNeil, Allen Parr, Stella Pautsch, Ruth Welch, Joseph Zigler, Elizabeth Kelly, Mary Ford, Marion Truesdell, David Jorg, George Knipp, Joseph King, Althea Sheldon and Elizabeth Lipton.

Bennett Is Out of Tennis Meet

George Bennett of Janesville, paired with Moulding in tennis for the University of Wisconsin at the western conference meet at Chicago, was eliminated in the doubles after a severe battle Friday. Bennett stopped off here Friday night on the return to Janesville.

The local lad and his partner lost to Wilson and Frankenstein of Chicago, 5-7, 6-1. It was a severe contest, the badgers forcing the Maroons from the start.

Treadwell and Agoston of Wisconsin, the only other hopes of Coach Lundin, were put out on Friday by Gurney and Agoston, 6-1, 4-6, 7-5. This was the only extra set match of the day.

Eddie Wilson of Chicago and Charles Merkell of Michigan play in the finals Saturday at the singles title. Art Frankenstein of Chicago went down Friday before Merkell.

REBATE TO BE PAID BY SHIPPING "CO-OP"

C. J. McKeown, Janesville, was named as a director of the Janesville Livestock Shipping association, which is holding its first meeting here Friday evening. The directors will meet later to elect officers. The association voted to pay the rebate due from the National Livestock Producers' association to all farmers who shipped through the local association during the last year.

After June 30 no shippers will share in the rebate unless a member of the Rock County Farm Bureau or that has paid $10 for a yearling membership to the local association. Complaint is made that non-farm Bureau members slip through the association and enjoy the same benefits as do paid members.

$1,000 Damage Here by Storm

Probably $1,000 worth of damage was done on farms in the vicinity of Janesville by the windstorm, hail and rain last Saturday. A check-up by local insurance men shows losses totaling between $500 and $800 were reported to O. S. Morgan and Son by the following: O. Benash, Ed. Parker, Emil Seigelow and the Heddes farm. At the Benash place the tobacco shed was moved a foot on its foundation.

WHITEWATER

MISS ALICE MARSH, Phone 232-R.

The Young Women's Auxiliary had its final meeting of 1922-23 with Mrs. J. H. Dumont, 292 North Prairie street, Mrs. Wakefield R. Shock and Miss Eleanor Lee, assisting hostesses. A report of the $50 proceeds of the benevolence supper, netted the Ladies Union and the auxiliary about $20 each. The plan to remodel the Congregational church kitchen was discussed and at least $500 towards its completion will be pledged by the Auxiliary. The hostesses served orange pudding and cake for refreshments.

A 1 o'clock luncheon will be enjoyed by the Ladies Union and the Young Women's Auxiliary Saturday, May 26, in the Congregational church parlors. The girls of the public schools under the direction of Miss Eleanor Lee will serve the luncheon.

All Mrs. Thomas C. Godfrey's family have been summoned, because of her serious illness. Her brother, Judge Robert Dickson of O'Neill, Neb., came Tuesday, and another brother, Joseph Dickson, arrived Thursday from Montana. Joseph Dickson came several days ago, and though very weak, Mrs. Godfrey has been able to visit with each. Her son-in-law, Edward G. Lange, is expected this week, after the close of the Waupaca schools. Misses Emma Cor, M. R. Roby, M. R. Nichols and Franklin Tyrell, with Miss Emma Goodhue motorized to Port Atkinson Wednesday, to attend readings, and all others.

EDGERTON

Edgerton—Ten trackmen from here are competing in the 20th annual Wisconsin interscholastic track and field meet at Madison Saturday under the auspices of the U. W. They are: August Jacobson, Harold Osterberg, Blaine Larson, Jerome Whitford, Edwin Schmidt, Ross Maraden, Arthur Husey, Russell Silverwood, Roy Nelson and Lawrence Hansen. They were accompanied by Supr. P. J. Holt, Carl Sangster and Clarence Abendroth.

Mrs. G. W. Blanchard and Mrs. O. J. Jensen entertained the Saturday afternoon of Mrs. Blanchard, Randolph street. A 1 o'clock luncheon was followed by bridge.

Allen Skinner and son, Allen, Jr., visited Edgerton friends Friday. Mr. and Mrs. James Hall and family of Winthrop, Minn., heirs of the late James Murphy, Fulton township, were in the city Thursday and Friday on business connected with the settlement of the estate.

Jeanette Langworthy went to Milwaukee Friday to spend the weekend with her sister, Vera, who is attending normal school there.

The Misses Grace and Kathleen Condon are spending the weekend at Madison, guests of their sister, Mrs. Paul Sweeney.

The Sadie Cotton Memorial W. C. T. U. held a mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. Andrew McIntosh, Friday afternoon. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Maude Brown. The Rev. Charles Atkins discussed methods of keeping the children busy and happy during vacation. "The Rev. Dr. A. Boyd talked on 'A Child's Challenge to His Parents,' and the Rev. J. J. Bailey on 'Parent and Child as Chorus.' 'Trust Your Mother' was sung by five little girls, Ruth Rose, Phyllis Larson, Elizabeth Marsden, Violet Husey and Marian Bailey. A solo 'Mother' was sung by Mrs. E. E. Rusk. Elizabeth Marsden and Regina Westcott sang a duet. A community supper was served. Miss Helen Greenwood is spending the week end with friends in Stoughton.

20 TEACHERS MARK RURAL PUPILS' WORK

As the aftermath of two days "brain work" on the part of more than 500 students in the Rock county rural and state graded schools, a force of more than 20 teachers recruited from the county, was at work Saturday at the court house marking the papers.

The result, which probably will not be known for two weeks, will determine those who will be graduated in June, and those 7th grade pupils who pass in to the 8th grades.

The examinations were given in centrally located schools in each township in Rock county.

Several teachers will be at work at the court house, Monday, continuing the marking.

RYAN COMPLETES WORK AT SUPERIOR

Stanley M. Ryan, assistant United States district attorney, left Superior for home Saturday, after representing the government at the arraignment of several men charged with violations of the liquor and other laws. The department is much elated over the raid staged at Superior this week by federal prohibition agents which, it is believed, will give the district attorney's office of Janesville, sufficient evidence to obtain convictions of most of the 30 men arrested. Most of those arrested are frequent violators. Judge C. C. Lusk is showing no mercy in handling the liquor cases giving stiff sentences with the result that few pleaded guilty, preferring to take their chances after a trial.

ST. PAUL OFFICIALS AT SAFETY MEETING

Supr. J. A. MacDonald and A. A. Beermann, Madison; G. W. 100 WAYS To Make Money BY DILLY WINNER

If I Were a Banker—I WOULD advertise my safety deposit boxes through the Gazette Want Ads. Many people have valuables lying around the house through sheer carelessness. Perhaps they have heirlooms which would be impossible to replace if they were lost through fire and theft. I would call to their attention how little it costs to rent a safety deposit box, compared to the absolute surety they would have that things they valued most were in safekeeping. The reason I'd use Janesville Gazette Want Ads is because I'd be a progressive banker and would, therefore, want to line up with a progressive paper. A paper which is interested enough in its Want Ads to spend so much effort in building up a really comprehensive Classified Section is bound to attract the attention of the people I'd want to read my ad—the substantial people of the community who would make good customers for my bank. ## WILL PROSPERITY GO RIGHT ALONG?

Redistribution of Wealth a Factor—Labor Plays Leading Part.

Almost every thinking man has his own opinions and theories respecting the future of the office of old King Prosperity. That this is true may be proved by giving any acquaintance an opportunity to express his views on the duration of good times. Simply drive an opening wedge and then all that one will need to do will be to listen. A correspondent of the Boston Transcript in reviewing the business situation from Philadelphia, there is no use of reviewing history and fighting the rear guard. It is just as a foundation upon which to stand it may be mentioned that the United States was enormously enriched by the great struggle both before and after this country became involved in the contest. If gold imports are an indication, the process of enrichment is still going on, as an increase in our stock of gold of about $50,000,000 since Jan. 1 brings the total to about $400,000,000, which is one-third of all the gold in the world and practically concentrates the available supply in the United States. Anyone may recall the tremendous amount of bonds which Europe sold to investors in this country between August, 1914, and April, 1917, and since those sales the interest on this large investment has been distributed here so that corporation incomes, as well as interest upon municipal, State and Government bonds, have been retained here instead of being scattered over Europe. Evidence of the great wealth here could be compiled until the process would become tiresome. Let it rest with the two instances cited, as the facts are so apparent that no one will be apt to dispute them.

Redistribution of Wealth Here.—Consequently few of the 108,000,000 citizens profited to an extraordinary degree while the war was being waged and since its end there has been in progress the redistribution of the great wealth concentrated in America. That "a fool and his money are soon parted" still holds good, and the schemes to get the man's money out of him and to get more than their share of wealth concentrated here while the process of redistribution goes on. That is one chief reason why the masses are so indifferent towards the League of Nations, the International Court and other world-wide subjects. The mad scramble for a portion of the gold that dazzles everyone's eyes will continue until the redistribution has been accomplished.

It is because this process of redistribution of wealth has not yet ended that expectation is probably well founded of a continuation of prosperity in the United States. The problem was too huge to be solved in the few years that have elapsed since the close of the war and distribution is likely to go on intermittently for some years more. As Mr. Dooley remarked, "This is a country of opportunity for the rich to become richer and the poor to become poorer." Those persons who do not know how to take care of newly acquired wealth will part with it, and others who have learned the lesson of saving, of keeping capital well employed and safely invested will add to their accumulations.

Must Be No Abuse of Power.—There are ameliorating circumstances which tend to prolong the crisis which might prove disastrous. Labor is so well organized that it is virtually a trust. Curtailment of immigration through prohibitory laws, the lack of opportunities brought about by organized labor which desires to curtail the supply of skilled workers, extraordinary demands for mechanics as a result of the country-wide building boom all tend to create a monopoly for organized labor. A direct result of this monopoly is the payment of higher wages than were even before disturbed in the world and by reason of such high wages the workman is getting possibly more than his full share of the new wealth in the process of distribution. A great many mechanics have learned the value of saving, of investment and of home-buying. Their big earnings are not being dissipated as formerly and in this possibly prohibition plays a part. Thus it occurs that the monopoly of organized labor with resultant high wages is operating to prolong prosperity so long as the advantages are not abused. If carried to an extreme a labor monopoly like any other will work disaster.

Labor leaders need only to look at the stock and commodity markets to learn a lesson. A corner in labor is very like a corner in a stock or in wheat and when pressed so as to work a hardship a crisis occurs which brings about disaster and a violent slump. If the labor leaders, therefore, are wise they will nurse their position and by refraining from making exorbitant demands upon employers will prolong the present period of prosperity greatly to the advantage of all workers as well as to the welfare of builders, contractors and owners of structures.

Politicians have never been so well organized as they are today not only for business purposes but for the shaping of legislation in their own special interests. If they do not abuse their new powers they also may help to prolong prosperity. In addition regulation by the Reserve banks of the money market may prove helpful.

Politics is playing a hand in general conditions. Speaking for the President some time ago Secretary Hoover urged that all public works be shelved for a time so that municipalities, States and the Government would not compete with private enterprise in a way to further advance prices of materials and wages. The Reserve Board had previously ordered all Reserve Banks to refrain from new building operations. Viewed from a political standpoint there may be another motive for this step, which was the beginning of a temporary movement towards deflation. The country had been going at such a wonderful pace that it is quite notable the authorities at Washington reasoned a recession must come and as it was inevitable, it would be better to have the recession occur in the next year when a Presidential campaign will be in progress. By holding back public works now cities for new public construction may be placed next year and this takes up the slack if any occurs so that 1924 will be a year of prosperity that will be favorable to a continuance of the party in power.

It seems a misadventure first that good times in the United States are not drawing to a close because the redistribution of wealth has not been completed and secondly that a recession occurs now it will simply be preliminary to another favorable era next year.

Liberty Bonds May Advance and Reach Par

That the prospects are bright for an advance in the Liberty Bond market before long is the opinion of the F. F. Childs & Co., Government bond specialists. Enumerating the various factors which should operate in favor of an upward in prices, they say: There is a growing belief that ample credit is available for the period during which the present business boom is likely to continue and that profits from increased turnover will accumulate into a surplus for investment sufficient to force money rates down to a lower level sooner than has been generally expected. The seasonal output of new capital and the care and caution generally practiced today, based upon a determination to avoid the disastrous experiences of 1920, will probably stimulate a demand for investments in Liberty bonds at the very time when all other securities begin to decline as the slowing down from the pace of boom days begins to be discerned.

Liberty bonds are now in stronger hands than ever before and their accumulation by financial institutions, which are able to retain them in face of any probably developments, is ample assurance that the present market level is not likely to recede much if any lower.

The belief formerly prevailed that the emission of many hundred millions of Farm Loan bonds would absorb vast sums which would otherwise be invested in Liberty bonds. It now becomes apparent that the sale of Farm Loan bonds releases capital in agricultural districts with which Liberty bonds may be bought. Interior banks are no longer pressed to supply the nation's farming communities. These banks to a considerable extent find it more difficult to make satisfactory or acceptable

Sharp Reaction During Week in N. Y. Stock Prices

New York.—The reaction in securities and commodities prices, which had been underway since the first week in March, came to a sudden halt this week, which witnessed a sharp rally in the stock and other speculative markets. Expert observers generally were of the opinion that the market had been oversold, at least temporarily, and that the brisk recovery was due to a week-end technical condition. Opinion is still widely divided as to whether the recent reaction was the beginning of a bear market or a temporary setback incidental to the final phase of the bull market, which began in the late summer of 1923.

Railroad shares again came to the fore on the report that car loadings, for the week ending May 13, were the highest this year and with the four percent of the record for their new powers they also may help to prolong prosperity. In addition showing a substantial decrease in the production of California crude, the immense surplus of which previously had a depressing influence.

Speculative belief that the Australian loan would soon result in an increased demand for copper from that country was responsible in part for the recovery in those shares. Motors continued to be influenced by a record breaking sales and production reports.

Cancellation and suspension of building projects were used as excuses by bear traders for the intermittent hammering of the steel shares.

June Maturities Lowest Known

A total of $30,987,980 of railroad, public utility and industrial securities will mature during June. This is an unusually small total as compared with recent months, the total for the month having been $44,111,350 for June last year, $58,992,380. More than half of the maturities are in the form of industrial bonds, which aggregate $16,374,900. Railroad bonds make up $8,481,400, and public utility bonds $6,111,500. The largest issue falling due next month is $10,000,000 of Armour & Co. convertible debenture bonds. The Armour issue will begin to pay off the accumulated dividends on its preferred and wipe all accumulations of the 7 per cent class out during this year.

farm mortgage loans locally. Instead, they will probably be compelled to employ their funds in other than local investments and no doubt will seek and maintain among their assets, Liberty bonds, which they formerly disregarded.

Purchases by the sinking fund, beginning July 1, of over one-quarter billion Liberty loans will no doubt lend greater resistance to price recessions during the coming year than formerly. During the past year much of that fund was devoted to the retirement of Victory notes, which have now been refinanced.

INVESTMENTS

Bonds reflect the slump in stocks and the market has been dull all week.

Virginia-Carolina Chemical company shows a deficit. The losses, however, are not as large as last year. The cotton seed oil business has been a disappointment.

San Francisco shows the largest ocean shipping, bank clearing and general business of its history in April reports.

The English pound is now worth $4.53-16. Last year at this time it was worth $4.44. Parity is $4.86. The coinage and paper of Sweden and Holland come closer to parity than that of any other European nation.

Philadelphia & Reading earnings in 1922 were equal to $7.10 a share on the common stock.

Banks Pay Peking Police to Forestall Wage Strike

Peking.—To prevent a strike of metropolitan police, whose pay is five months in arrears, the native banks of the capital have subscribed half a million dollars as a loan to the ministry of finance which is said to have admitted its inability to hold out any hope of relief for the city guardians. Representatives of the banks, guided by Commercial institutions are agitating for a reorganization of the police force with a view to removing control from the central government and providing a more stable source of revenue for their pay.

LATEST MARKET REPORT

FINANCE

New York.—Another sharp rally in prices took place in Saturday's brief and active session of the stock market. Indications of fresh buying of seasoned industrial stocks again led to extensive short covering, the competition between buyers for both accounts resulting in some excellent gains. The advance was again headed off by the oil shares, although American Can, which sold 1/2 points above Friday's close and a number of the food and sugar shares also marked marked progress. California Petroleum established a new high for all time and then based on profit taking. Atlantic Gulf was the only outstanding exception to the upward trend, being down 2 points to a new low record for the year. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 600,000 shares.

BANK CONDITIONS.

New York.—The actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows an excess in reserve of $10,065,770. This is a decrease of 664,440.

Make a Confidant of Your Banker

Many people have mistaken ideas about banks and bankers.

They think of the banker as a dignitary, secluded from the public behind a big mahogany desk, with no time for anything aside from the bank's routine business.

This is not true—at least in this community.

Your banker realizes that he has a civic duty outside of his purely business relations with his depositors—a duty to act as a willing financial adviser to those who are in need of such advice, whether or not they are customers of the bank.

You should feel free to consult your banker on any subject pertaining to your welfare. When urged to invest your hard earned money in any new stock-selling scheme, it is good business to investigate BEFORE you invest and

Great Prep Meet On University; South Looks Big

(By Staff Correspondent)
Camp Randall, Madison.—Wisconsin's greatest interscholastic track and field meet, the 29th, opened here Saturday afternoon with an array of stars that appear to be the fastest in the history of the event.

Records Are Expected to Fall.
Early predictions were that more records will be broken this year than in any one year in the history of the meet. Material available for the javelin and the 220-yard dash seems due to put a crimp into the present holders.

For years the high schools of Milwaukee city have been running with the honors in the Class A division for schools of more than 200 registration. This year, while the University of Wisconsin is the favorite to walk off again with this division, there is a distinct fear in the hearts of the Milwaukeeans that they are facing a tougher competition. With cinder path and turf replacing baseball in many schools and a greater number of dual, triangular, county and sectional meets held this spring, material has been developed that is expected to take a severe wallop at the supremacy of the institutions of the state's metropolis.

Southern Wisconsin Strong
In other years, schools sent many more athletes to represent them at the meet than this year. While there are but 100 more boys taking part than in 1922, "prep" coaches have given more study to selection for this classic. For that reason, better performance and closer competition is expected in every one of the 26 events.

If things go as expected, North will once again walk off with the premier honors in the B. class for school of under 200 student body. The little school over in the hills of Green County has won the prize out of stellar athletes so consistently that it has had no trouble in trial meets this season in coping first honors. Milton Union has been coming to the meet so strongly, however, that Coach Polak's aggression is looked upon to make it pretty hot for all schools with the possible exception of Wisconsin High of Madison. Lancaster must also be given a consideration for it holds at least one lad, Donovan, who is of record-breaking qualities in the dashes.

Boys Have High Time
An exciting battle between southern Wisconsin schools in Class A is anticipated between Madison Central and Stoughton. Racine and Kenosha are keen contenders for first honors. Stoughton has Watson, present holder of the state javelin record.

The high school athletes are the guests here of the fraternities. They will see the regular crew race duel in the late afternoon and those that remain over will be given an automobile trip on Sunday.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Busy Man's Sport Page

By FRANK SINCLAIR

EDDIE COLLINS is back in the ball game and with his return to the Windy City Sox he is throwing the biggest surprise of the American League season. His records given out this week by the Associated Press for games up to and including Wednesday. He is playing as a snapper game than ever after 17 years under the big tent and is leading in base stealing with 13 thefts. In addition, he topped the leaders in the American League for the past week with 24 points to his average to make it 336 to push him into third place. "Babe" Ruth, who like Collins was receiving the race from the Sox, is starting his strike, taking 24 points to his average and bagging four homers for a total of eight. The other high spot of the week was Ty Cobb who scored his 1,741st run for a world record. They call him the "Georgia peach" because of the way he clings to baseball year after year.

HEILMAN still is on top of the American league sluggers but better pitching during the week lowered his average to .448. Reichle former University of Illinois star with the Red Sox is runner up with .387 and Bing Miller of Athletics is third with .381. In the National circuit, Nels of Dodgers and Traynor of Pirates are making great strides. Jack Wheat of the Brooklyn Superbas still sits on the throne with .417. Graham of the Pirates second with .404 and Bottomley of St. Louis third with .391. Danny Brief of Kansas City is paying the way to fame in the American association, leading the stick wielders with an average of .444.

MR. "CY" WILLIAMS of northern Wisconsin continues to whang out the old apple beyond the reach of the fielders in the far removed gardens. During the week, he clouted the ball to bring his total of four homers up to 17. He is the first major leaguer to pass the century mark for total bases this season, his hits giving him 104 sacks. He has made six doubles and three triples. Ken Williams of St. Louis in the American league has nine homers, making but one in the past seven days. "Babe" Ruth has scored 26 times in 31 games. Brief is leading the quadruple ply swatters in the association with an aggregate of 11.

Fast field ready for athletes at state track and field meet at Madison.
California picked to win track title at intercollegiate meet at University of Pennsylvania Saturday.

CLOUDS SPIT FISH

NOTE: This story is entered in the Gazette fish story contest, which closes June 15. Prize $5 for the best.

BY NUNNIE GIFFORD.
Did you ever catch fish out on the prairie miles from lake or running stream? I hear you say, "What foolish question." Yes, it does sound foolish, but such was the experience of some school children of a country district in the spring of 1925. It was a very warm day and near the closing hour of school, when pupils, tired of books and restless from heat, were longing for the freedom of the outside world. "The little red school-house" had a charm compared with that of Mother Nature, nor was the desire for the presidency of U. S. at some future time any inducement to prolong study hours; but a threatening cloud swiftly rolling up from the horizon was sufficient to check anxiety for the homeward rush.
The rain came in torrents for a few minutes, clouds rolled on and there was a calmness once more, with prospect of a delightful paddle home through mud and water, barefooted. In slight depressions were miniature lakes, in which, still alive, were hundreds of minnows. Imagine the ecstasy of these youngsters. Every dinner pail immediately became an aquarium and a surprise for mother.
"Well," says one, "this is too wonderful to go unpublished. I'll take these to the Gazette office and it will make an interesting item for the paper." But it didn't thrill Mr. Reporter as much as it did people in the country, who seldom had a thrill, and he simply treated it as a "fish story," but those youngsters had a grand and glorious time catching fish out on the prairie.

one ball contest. Shift practice has been held here all this week.
Fred Clatworthy, first baseman who has been out of the game since the curtain raiser here two weeks ago with a wrenched ankle, is likely to be back upon the initial sack for Janesville. He stayed out last week in order to favor the injured member.
It is rumored on Saturday that "Harry" Kakaske, Doanville outfielder, will jump the club in order to play with the Milton American legion, though not a member of the legionnaires. In that event, his position will be filled nicely.
Edgerton at Stoughton.
The folks over at the Tolpauco city are all aflame this week-end. Edgerton's American legion organization will appear at Stoughton. It will be the first time in many months that a game has been staged between these intense rivals in which no hired outside professional will be used. As a result, the interest is even more at a high pitch than in the past and crowds are looked for at the Hub city American legion playgrounds.
Here will be a real test. Two closely matched teams are due to mix matters. Earl Whitford, the Edgerton moundman, who blanked the Boosters on his own lot last week, will face another clever flinger in "Cider" Jerdee.
See Victory for Port.
With two victories to its credit, Port Atkinson's American legion pastime crew will take a short run over to the town of Cambridge. There is somewhat of a rivalry existing between these two towns that will help swell the gate receipts and make the affair considerable of an attraction.
Cambridge has a 500 percentage in the win and loss column to date. It has been displaying nice baseball, and unless they find that "Cy" Franks is too much of a mystery, they are going to show Port a few tricks. One thing about the Cambridge outfit is that it never gives up and fights to the last ditch.
Port, on the other hand, has a smashing punch. The machine is like a kerosene tractor—the longer it works, the better it gets. In other words, a good game is being cooked up for the fans. Cambridge will use Neupert and Christensen.

"STEPPING WITH THE TIMES"

THE world is a schoolroom, not a playshop.
Life is an education, not a holiday.

The oil cup of knowledge is essential if you would keep the machinery of the brain in perfect working order.

If diamonds were as plentiful as peanuts they would be of little value. "Treasures of thought" can be acquired only by hard digging.

Where is your newspaper of yesterday? Cast aside for the one of today. Coach travel was acceptable until superseded by steam. Electricity was discovered, and "the steam engine is passing away."

The knowledge of Newton is "old stuff" to the schoolboy of 1923. Progress is driving a Rolls-Royce, and the track is clear as far as the eye can see.

And this store, too, is "stepping with the times." We're traveling along the road with Progress. It is our ambition to serve the buying public to the limit of our capacity.

We feature Stratford Clothes because we believe in the "economy of quality." They're quality clothes—"heart and soul" clothes. We feature the highest quality shoes—"heart and soul" shoes. To sell such clothes and shoes is a pleasure—to wear them is satisfaction.

Indeed, we are maintaining a high standard of merchandising. And, as we write, we are dreaming of even higher standards. But that's another story.

Black Hawks — J. Loeck, R. Krueger, J. Kakuske, R. Fagel, G. Bradford, C. Wilson, B. Deley, P. Schmidt, G. Graff, E. Kakuske.

Rich Comes Back; Defeats Jawson

Milwaukee — Richie Mitchell, Milwaukee lightweight boxer, scored a complete come-back Friday night when he was given the unanimous newspaper decision over Joe Jawson, a rugged local pug. Mitchell was credited with nine of the ten rounds, the fourth going to Jawson when he momentarily upset Richie with a right to the chin. Mitchell landed almost upset Jawson in the first and second round and had a good margin in the majority of the rounds. Jawson was leading from the mouth and nose from the sixth to the finish. Mitchell staggered Joe in the eighth and ninth round and had him holding and on a verge of knocking him out. Negotiations are going on for another match in New York between Richie Mitchell and Benny Leonard.

Watertown Wins Dodge Track Meet

GETS PORTO RICO IN THE DAY TIME

Porto Rico in the day time! That is the claim of Arthur E. Tomlin, of Evansville, and it constitutes a record not only for southern Wisconsin but perhaps for the entire country. In writing about it to the Gazette, Mr. Tomlin says:

"We just picked up Ensenada, Porto Rico, station WQAD. We received this musical program loud enough to hear all over the store with the loud speaker on one of our sets."

"They signed off at exactly 1 p. m. here, or 3 p. m. Porto Rico time. This, I think, is a record for distance in the middle of the day. Can you beat it?"

JEFF YOUTH GETS CUBA

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE

Jefferson.—This city boasts 15 owners of radio receiving sets. One of them, Nathan Fischer, has been able to pick up WJAX of Havana, Cuba, on a home made, one tube set, using a loose coupler.

The set owners of Jefferson are: Nathan Fischer, Sanborn street; Earl Fischer, Main street; William Lukka, Sanborn street; Charles Banks, Second avenue; Douglas Daniels, Racine street; Dr. A. Buss, Fifth street; Harry Koerner, Main street; Melvin Doring, North Main street; Thomas Welch, Wilson street; Ralph Purucker, Darling street; Benjamin Schweiner, Main street; John Angel, of the city water and light department; Joseph Kemmerer, Racine street; and a lad named Reichel on the west side.

The high school has a radio club.

RADIO CLUB NEEDS $30 TOWARD SET

In order that the Radio club of the high school may purchase a

Good radio outfit for the school, $30 additional is needed and the club hopes, by its moving picture at the high school next Monday afternoon and night, to raise this amount. Showing of "The Tale of Two Cities" some time ago resulted in $50 for the club, although attendance was poor. The Monday picture, taken from the famous picture with an unusually interesting story.

WSB TO RADIO KIWANIS MEET

The flower of the quietest bands and elite clubs of the Kiwanis clubs of the world will serenade their home folks and the nation generally at concerts broadcast by The Atlanta Journal, WSB, while the national Kiwanis convention is in session in Atlanta, May 28-31.

The Houston, Tex., club, Sunday, at 5 p. m.; the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., quartet, Monday, 10:45 p. m.; The Davenport, Ia., quartet Tuesday at 7 p. m.; the Sidney, O., Kiwanis band, and the Raleigh, N. C. quartet, at 10:45 p. m. Tuesday, are some of the definite engagements.

Virtually every night of the week, however, Kiwanis musical organizations, soloists and speakers will be heard from WSB.

The club has given four advance concerts announcing the coming of the Kiwanian army to Atlanta.

JEFFERSON FAN GETS NEW STATION

Joseph Kemmerer of Jefferson has heard eight new stations in the past three weeks, buying his record up to 42. Trying for numbers he caught 10 different stations in one night on a home made set.

Kemmerer has picked up the new station WFAI at St. Croix Falls, Wis. His other additions are WSAH, Chicago; WCAH, Minneapolis; WJAX, Cleveland; WYAT, Chicago; WJAZ, Chicago; WNAD, Norman, Okla.; WGR, Buffalo.

The Gazette radio department was able this week to inform Mr. Kemmerer of the new WFAI location. He closes his letter, saying:

CITY INTERESTED IN "ROLLING HOME"

New Comedy in Chicago Co-Stars Daughter of Warren Patrick.

Janesville has more than a passing interest in "Rolling Home," a new American comedy starring Donald Brian, which opened at the Harvard theater in Chicago this week. Interest locally is centered on the appearance in the production of Miss Lee Patrick, daughter of the late Warren A. Patrick, former editor of the old Janesville Recorder and many years with the Burr, Robbins and Ringling circuses. She has visited here frequently at the Clithero home on South Bluff street.

Miss Patrick takes a leading part in the role of one of the village maidens who spurs Brian on to do big things, in a manner that amuses of the Wallingford type of comedy which proved so popular. In opening in Chicago, "Rolling Home" has started something new for practicality of the present day productions have their premiere in the east before getting to the Windy City.

Critics Praise Her

Dramatic critics of Chicago are as one in lauding the acting of Miss Patrick as Phyllis Weston, and the entire cast is acclaimed excellent.

One says of her:

"Miss Lee Patrick, in the role of the girl who brought the hero of the evening back to his home town, Little Falls, Mass., will be the subject of much comment. * * * Reed and Shesgreen, who present the comedy, might have looked for a girl of Miss Patrick's type. She has the beauty which made the Donald and Julia and Julia combination a success. And her acting is a joy. * * * It is great fun to make a million

Melrose Back from National Church Assembly

In number of members, amount given for missions and education and the number of foreign missionaries, the Presbyterian denomination is larger than ever before, according to the word brought home Friday by the Rev. J. A. Melrose, first Presbyterian church, official delegate for this district at the annual General Assembly of the church at Indianapolis. Expenses of the church and the amount contributed have increased in about the same ratio, and altogether, the church is in a healthy condition.

Radical tendencies came up often at the convention but where suppressed. Interest in the Indianapolis convention was large because of the completion of the work of reorganizing 16 benevolent and educational boards of the church into four organizations. The announced intention of William Jennings Bryan to run for the office of Moderator of assembly together with certain doctrinal matters scheduled for discussion attracted large attention to the gathering. Dr. Charles F. W. Hart, Wooster college, Wooster, O., was elected Moderator by a vote of 451 to 427 for Mr. Bryan.

Synods and Presbyteries were instructed to withhold support from any college or school within their bounds which seeks to establish a materialistic evolutionary philosophy of life or which disregards or attempts to disregard the Christian faith. Strong resolutions were adopted looking to the enforcement of the prohibition laws.

Grand Rapids, Mich., was chosen for the next assembly, May 22-29, 1924. Rev. Mr. Melrose was away from here for more than ten days. He will occupy his pulpit as usual Sunday.

Federation Will Visit Nursery

Members of the City Federation of Women are to visit the day nursery and see the new quarters, Thursday afternoon, following the annual luncheon program. This plan was decided upon at a meeting of the nursery committee, Friday afternoon, when plans for securing additional equipment were also discussed. It was announced that the Howe Mfg. Co. had offered to make and donate the three crib mattresses needed.

A number of washable rag rugs are needed, a wash basin and soap dish, dresser or chiffonier, and children's romper suits. Mrs. Clara Boyle, nursery matron, hopes to put into practice some of the methods used in a Milwaukee day nursery, which she visited last week. Donations of fresh eggs, vegetables and fruits are always in order.

A full report of the nursery project and an outline of plans for the future will be presented by the chairman of the nursery committee at the City Federation luncheon, May 31.

LEVY'S ANNEX

We Have Struck a Popular Chord

The women who thronged to this store today were unanimous in declaring that they had never before seen such values in Janesville—that this store fills a long felt need—that there would be no question about its immediate popular success—and it was good to hear these comments, because we have spent all our energy towards giving the people of Southern Wisconsin the kind of store they want here, in LEVY'S ANNEX.

The buying power of cash is exemplified in the low prices ticketed on this quality merchandise. One is amazed at the values obtainable. Of course, selling all merchandise on a cash basis also helps to keep the price down here. This low price policy applies on every single garment and article of women's furnishings in the store.

Crowds came and bought all day long. We did not, in fact, could not, anticipate the extraordinary amount of business that was accorded us here today, and if anyone was even slightly neglected, we apologize. We could not foresee the tremendous response to our opening. We shall, of course, immediately, supply additional clerks to keep the service the best possible.

We thank you for your response, and assure you that we appreciate it. It leads us to believe that we have struck a popular chord in opening this popular priced store.

Mrs. Herbert Vogler of Milwaukee, formerly a member of the "House of David" and the colony's prettiest girl, denied reports of improprieties within "King Ben's" realm when quizzed by Michigan authorities.

SENATE WOULD O. K. WORLD COURT PLAN BY VOTE TODAY

A survey of the attitude of senators on President Harding's plan for a world court indicates that as the senators now feel the plan would pass the senate by an overwhelming vote if placed before that body. Only nine senators are classed as "hopelessly" against the plan. Seventy-three favor it. The senators are classed according to recent opinions expressed publicly or to close associates.

GAZETTE GOOD TIMES CLUB

FOR ALL SCHOOL BOYS AND GIRLS

Local branches should not overlook the matter of electing officers to serve during vacation, especially a Gazette reporter, who will write letters to the editor occasionally about a neighborhood events and will in turn be entitled to receive the June, July and August recreation envelopes in which to send news letters. Some branches have never reported the election of a reporter to the editor.

The editor is also endeavoring if those members of the club, who do not have the Gazette in their homes cannot persuade their parents to subscribe for the summer months at least. Three months' subscriptions are accepted, and the outlay involved is very small, when one considers what it means to every member of the family to have the Gazette coming into the home every day. Boys and girls who do not have the news and other interesting material that will appear in the Good Times club section during vacation will miss that which of itself is worth several times the subscription price of the Gazette. Birthdays cards will be sent out as usual during the summer months. The Gazette has, since the club was started last October, sent birthday cards to nearly 900 members.

Auto Topics

Gasoline can not only drive a car at a terrific speed—it can reduce it to a mass of molten metal. A leaky connection—a short circuit or hot engine—the car is enveloped by fire—the gas tank explodes. It will pay you to repair a gas leak at once.

There are other common causes of fire, some of which cannot be easily detected. Even a minor blaze in your car or garage means an outlay of cash for repairs. It is wise to insure your car against such loss.

Vacuum Cleaner magic

Producing rabbits from thin air is a simple stunt compared with what our expert cleaner men can do with the Hamilton Beach Vacuum Sweeper. The jumping dollars, the snapping thread, and the fluttering carpet, are a few of the trick demonstrations they can show you.

But frankly, such stunts don't prove very much, because vacuum sweepers are bought to clean rugs and carpets, easily, quickly, and thoroughly. This is the greatest trick any cleaner can do. We recommend it as the standard by which to compare. You can be the judge. Buy a Hamilton Beach Vacuum Sweeper. Then you empty the bag.

JOHNSON CREEK

Johnson Creek—John Banker, one of the oldest settlers in this vicinity, died Wednesday at the age of 75 years. He was born in Andover in 1848. In 1878 he was married to Augusta Elise. They had two children, a son Samuel and one daughter who died in infancy. He has lived all his life near this village. He retired from farm life 9 years ago and since then has been a much honored citizen here. Several weeks ago he suffered a stroke which finally led to his death.

He leaves his aged widow, his son Samuel, a grand son, four sisters, Mrs. Jankie, Oregon, Mrs. L. Elise, Watertown, Wis., Mrs. Elsie Storch, Burlington and Mrs. Modick, Jefferson, three brothers, George Banker, Ft. Atkinson and W. Banker and C. Banker, Jefferson.

The funeral will be held at one p. m. Sunday from the home and at the Ebenezer church. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

Funeral services will be held at the church Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. Burlington and Mrs. F. Tummers were Jefferson callers Thursday.

CLINTON

Clinton—Mrs. D. J. Lee and other representatives of the Bergen Lutheran church attended the Missionary gathering at Watertown leaving here Wednesday morning by auto. Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Guebert spent Wednesday in Rockford. About 50 children took part in the special service at the German Lutheran church Sunday. The domestic science class of the high school entertained their mothers at a four o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon. The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will give the "Bachelor Daddy" Saturday evening. The Twentieth Century club will hold its final meeting with Mrs. Edwin Foley Monday afternoon. On Decoration Day the stores will close at 10 a. m. The program at Bergen commences at 10:30 a. m. and at Clinton cemetery at 2:30 p. m. The Circle No. 2 of the Ladies Aid will have a baking sale Saturday afternoon at Northway's store. The J. U. class had its monthly social with Mrs. Fred Whitmore Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments were given. Two kinds of cake and coffee was served.

NEW INCOME TAX BILL REPORTED TO FLOOR OF SENATE

The bill provides that individual income tax payers may still offset their personal property taxes against their income tax, while corporations are required to pay the full tax without any offset.

All mill taxes for state purposes to support the university, normal schools and common schools are repealed by the bill. This makes it necessary, committee men say, to raise an additional $7,000,000 over the present revenue from income taxes.

Of the $14,000,000 estimated to be produced should provisions of the bill go into effect, 50 percent would be retained by the state; 40 percent would be retained to municipalities in which collected and 10 percent would go to the counties.

Much Like Dabill Bill.

Exemptions allowed by the finance committee bill are $800 for unmarried persons, $1200 for married persons and $300 for each child or other dependent.

Except for the changed feature of partial repeal of the personal property tax, the finance committee measure is almost identical with the revised Dabill bill, according to members. The rates on individuals are approximately the same as those provided by Governor Blaine's measure, senators say.

The progressive republican senators expect to get the support of the socialists for their new bill, and express the opinion that they can muster strength enough to get it through the upper house. It is taken for granted the bill can pass the assembly with little opposition.

At Friday's meeting the tax commission was called into consultation before the bill was drafted.

FIGHT ROUND WORM TO SAVE LITTERS

Litter Losses Can Be Prevented in Most Cases—Boost New System.

INVESTIGATIONS and experiments show that much of the loss experienced lately by hog breeders is due to the common intestinal round-worm, "Ascaris lumbricoides," many of the piglets and sows are infected with this parasite and the result is a loss of weight and a failure to thrive. It is now a case of "the little pig goes to market and the little pig stays there—under the sod."

Pigs often show symptoms of "chumps" and many die of pneumonia and it is a sad prediction that when the young pigs start to keel over the farmer has a severe case of round-worm among his herd and in his pig lot. Pigs that survive a severe invasion of the round-worm do not fully recover and fail to grow and develop at a normal rate.

Hard Boiled Eggs
Pigs become infected by swallowing the eggs of the parasite which are microscopic in size and are found in the dirt hog-lots and in the soil of places that have been occupied by infected pigs. The eggs of a hog may produce as many as 20 million eggs and the eggs are resistant to cold weather, and are long-lived and not killed by most common disinfectants.

Where the farmer keeps on using the same old hog-lot year after year, the soil of these places is bound to be heavily laden with the round-worm eggs. Worm infested places are especially dangerous for young pigs and it is largely because of worm infestation that so many young pigs are lost or fail to grow properly when reared under ordinary methods of hog management.

Cure Hog Diseases
The federal Department of Agriculture has devised a system to reduce the amount of infestation and succeeded in inducing a number of McLean county farmers to try out the plan under the direction of the former Wisconsin state agent. The experiment has been a remarkable success and it is good for McLean county, Illinois, it is good for Rock county, Wisconsin, and it is good for the whole country. It has been found that this system not only prevents losses from worms, but also more or less completely prevents various fifth born diseases among swine such as hog-cholera, which cannot be detected upon a preventive of hog cholera.

Essentially the so-called McLean county system consists in handing the young pigs from the time of birth until they are several months old, in such a manner as to avoid or reduce the chance of infection with worms. The main reason for this system is so successful is that the young pigs are kept entirely away from old hog lots or other places that have been exposed to contamination.

Before farrowing time the pens are thoroughly cleaned. All litter is removed and all parts of the pen scrubbed with boiling water and lye. The heat of the water is destructive to the worm eggs and the lye aids in removing the dirt. The indoor pens are shut off from the outdoor pens. The sows are placed outside pens a few days before farrowing, but not until the mud and dirt that is usually present on their skins has been removed. The sows are washed thoroughly with soap and water so that the first mouthfuls of milk the new born pigs take is clean. After farrowing the sow and pig are not allowed out of the pen until they are taken to pasture, away from the old hog lot.

How Up Litter
In the case of fall pigs, if not farrowed too late, the same system may be followed with slight modifications. The permanent farrowing house need not be used. The sows can be taken after being washed to the special pasture and colony house with clean bedding.

There seems little doubt but what the common-sense sanitation followed in the Illinois county means the difference between profit and loss of the market hog. It makes a difference whether the farmer has 95 percent of his litters thrive and develop or loses around 50 percent or more. Old hog lots should be plowed up this summer and fall and even though this practice will not destroy the eggs, it will curb their spread. Hog lots should be changed frequently, for it says.

Due to the fact that there were such heavy losses this spring farmers are figuring for a heavy fall crop of pigs and there is plenty of time to have as many breeders and farmers as are interested try out the new system to be explained in Rock county by lectures and motion pictures.

SETTING RECORD

Clarabelle the Second.

National Short-horn authorities are now beginning to take notice of the great run being made by Clarabelle, the Second, a four year old, in the Traynor herd at Koshkonong. In four months this splendid heifer has produced 6,023 pounds of milk with an average test of 4.36 percent or 258.3 pounds of fat.

This record puts Clarabelle, the Second to the top of the list in the United States as a fat producer and if Traynor can hold the cow to her high production, new long time record is looked for by the breeders of the reds, roans and whites.

The cow freshened January 23, 1923 and was started on test in the Rock county Short-horn cow testing association February 1. Her record follows:

Feb. 14-45 lbs. milk, 4.5 lbs. fat.
Mar. 14-41 lbs. milk, 4.0 lbs. fat.
Apr. 13-50 lbs. milk, 3.96 lbs. fat.
May 13-55 lbs. milk, 4.0 lbs. fat.
The average fat production per month is nearly 6.4 pounds. The heifer is a daughter of Clarabelle, also in the Traynor herd, is a top-notch producer, and so good a show cow, she won the royal purple at the 1922 Wisconsin state fair and several county fairs.

Recent tests put both the Traynor and Marquart herd on the accredited list.

SELECTING PIGS FOR JUNIOR CLUB PLAN DELIVERY DAY
Swine association officers and County Agent R. E. Glasser are busy at work locating sufficient pigs for the new Rock county pig club. Breeders generally are co-operating and furnishing good type registered pigs for the stipulated $10 and paying the registration fee so that the pig will be in the boys and girls' name.

June 16 will be a big day in Rock county for around 218 purchasers of pigs will be distributed out to the boys and girls under contract with city business men.

"You bet you can have some of them."

PLAN PIGGON DINNER
In making plans for the Wisconsin Short-horn Breeders' picnic to be held on the McLean farm, east of Janesville, June 6, the committee composed of wives of the Rock county herders are taking full charge of the important department—"dinner." Each woman is being asked to bring sandwiches and two extra dishes to put on the tables. The dinner will be served cafeteria style. Each family is also asked to bring extra silverware and cups.

There will be a ball game during the day between the married men and single men and other athletic attractions.

my pigs for club work," said one Duroc-Jersey Breeder. "My daughter was in a pig club some years ago and that is the reason I have blooded swine. Her record in club work and the interest she took in the work made me a believer of county junior club work. You can take your pick."

The same spirit was evident among other breeders interested in the success of the new club—one of the largest in the United States. Around 700 people are expected to take part in the program on delivery day. Associations are making arrangements to handle the pigs by allotment and the rules call for the delivery of all papers to the boy or girl before the money is paid to the breeder and each association is pledged on a contract to fill the full obligations as set down by the Rock county advisory committee.

Besides the "Volstead bar" with "four percent or better" for their share, the Rock county Short-horn breeders are planning to bring the cream of their herds for the cattle demonstration at the state picnic to be held on the McLean farm, east of Janesville, June 6. Around a thousand people are expected.

Breeders are being asked to bring over one or two representative animals from their herd to the picnic. The day before the picnic and record sheets will be compiled to show visitors the production marks made by the cows and the best of the breeders.

City residents are invited to attend the picnic and as the stores are closed Wednesday afternoon, many will attend. Among the speakers will be J. L. Tormey, Madison and Chicago, national fieldman for the Short-horn association, Reid Murray, Madison, secretary of the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders' association, Prof. J. B. Fuller, an authority on beef cattle, and Frank Reynolds, state association officer.

FARM DRAINAGE
If you want to know about farm drainage, write Adam Channing, Whitewater, Wis. He will run your levels and give estimates on cost of tile and labor.

FAVORS THE POOL
"If tobacco growers cannot stick together in the Wisconsin tobacco pool, they might as well quit trying to co-operate. I believe in the pool and am going to stick," says Jess Campbell, Janesville. "For the first time growers were paid on a quality basis, and certainly the pool came through in good shape considering the newness of the plan and the amount of business handled."

GUERNSEY SALE AVERAGE
Top prices at the National Guernsey sale held in Devon, Pa., were $9,000. Eighty-seven head in the sale brought an average of $1,211, which goes to show that the registered Guernseys of top quality are in good demand.

a noonday reception. From Chilton they will journey to Drifloon, there to view the industries of the town.

To Study Counties
A committee of editors and business men in Manitowish are planning the event for Saturday evening. The next day will be spent with Kewaunee county editors doing the county and learning more in detail of the county. Sunday night will be spent in Sturgeon Bay and Monday on the Door county peninsula among the cherry orchards of that noted district.

The caravan will leave Sturgeon Bay Tuesday morning enroute to Green Bay and De Pere, the home town of John Kuyper, president of the Wisconsin Press association. Co-operating in this enterprise are the editors of the association which also include L. H. Zimmerman, Racine county, secretary, and O. R. Karpark, Walworth county; H. E. Kammeler, Washington county; H. E. Howe, Crawford county; Fred L. Hook, Milwaukee county; W. C. Hume, Calumet county; J. H. Wolfe, Milwaukee county; F. E. Gossner, La Crosse county; D. F. ## ABSOLUTE DISPERSION EDGEWOOD FARM HERD OWNED BY METROPOLITAN CHURCH ASSOCIATION Thursday, May 31st Waukesha Sale Pavilion, Waukesha 65-PURE BRED HOLSTEINS-65

Tested and sold subject to a 60-day retest.

This sale marks the dispersion of some of the greatest blood in Wisconsin. It is but seldom that blood of this kind is ever offered at public sale. All are to be sold without reserve.

A FEW OF THE OFFERINGS:

HOMESTEAD MARATHON BESS BURKE No. 702006, born August 3, 1921. Her sire is the famous Marathon Bess Burke. Her dam is Lady Oak Homestead Canary, with 27.59 lbs. butter and 604.60 lbs. milk in 7 days, whose dam in turn has a 30-lb. record as a 4-year-old. So far as we know, this is the only time that a daughter of Marathon Bess Burke has ever been offered at public sale. Her pedigree combines the blood of the two greatest Holstein families in the world.

KINGWOOD BERGSMAN NETHERLAND 6th No. 242382, born Feb. 23, 1914, with 28.47 lbs. butter and 537.00 lbs. milk in 7 days. Bred to King Bess Burke Homestead Canary.

MYRTLE WAYNE No. 130112, born December 9, 1908, with 338 lbs. butter in 365 days at 4½ years and 28.52 lbs. butter in 7 days at 4½ years.

Seven daughters of Johanna De Princess Champion between the ages of one and three years old. Most of them out of tested daughters an opportunity for some man to get a foundation herd. Anyone interested in Colantha blood should not miss these heifers.

Ten daughters of the 28-lb. bull, Mutual Bergsma Konigen. These heifers are all out of good producing dams, several of them with excellent records. They are all right around two years old.

Five daughters of the 33-lb. bull, Creamcup Fidessa Cornucopia, all between the ages of five and six years old. The dams of two of these cows are daughters of Pontiac Korndyke, the dams of two others are daughters of Oak De Kol Ollie Homstead Fobes, and the other one's dam is a daughter of Beauty Pieterje Prince. We leave it to you to decide as to the uniformity of type.

Five daughters of King Pontiac Segis of Rock, born between June 30, 1920, and May 18, 1921. King Pontiac Segis of Rock is a son of King Segis Pontiac, out of the former Wisconsin champion, Queen Juliana Dirkje.

A number of daughters of Pabst Hengerveld De Kol, 33-lb. son of King Pontiac Champion, Wisconsin's greatest sire of A R O daughters.

A daughter of Rag Apple Mata, out of the 29-lb. cow, Daisy Veeman Hengerveld 2d.

There are a number of choice heifer calves around four months old, sired by our herd sire, King Bess Burke Homestead Canary, who is a son of Bess Burke Ormsby, out of Lady Oak Homestead Canary.

Along with the herd, we are dispersing a number of choice bulls out of some of our best cows, bulls around a year old. Any man looking for a herd sire should look these bulls over.

The animals will be in the sale pavilion, Waukesha, on Tuesday, May 29th. We invite you to come and look our herd over before the sale.

HINTS FOR THE MOTORIST

by ALBERT L. CLOUGH

LOSS OF POWER. In the case of an engine which has hitherto been performing satisfactorily, if occurring rather suddenly, usually makes one suspect that the gasoline feed is inadequate or that something has happened to a valve, which results in a "weak cylinder," but there is another thing which sometimes causes an almost total loss of power, namely, disarrangement of the spark timing. If lost motion develops anywhere in the ignition timing train or anything becomes loose, the tendency is always to make the spark occur late and not early and an over-retarded spark performs its duty so tardily that the stroke that but very little of the energy of the explosion is imparted to the pistons, most of it escaping through the exhaust valves or adding to the heat in the jacket water. The most common way in which spark timing suddenly becomes so greatly disarranged as practically to "kill" the engine is through the slipping of the ignition-cam of the distributor unit. This is secured to the vertical shaft, by which it is conventionally driven by means of a set-screw and if this is not set up tightly the cam may slip around on the shaft in the retarded direction and reduce the engine's power to next to nothing. When this accident occurs, resetting the cam in accordance with the timing directions and fastening it securely are the remedies, but if quick results are necessary, merely turning the cam by hand slightly ahead in the direction in which it rotates and fastening it there may give the engine power enough to temporarily handle the car. Another cause of this accident is sometimes the coming apart of the spark-timing linkage anywhere between the spark lever and the distributor. When this happens the distributor is adrift and naturally moves into its most retarded position. In the case of engines with chain-driven cams and auxiliary shafts sudden loosening of the chain adjustment, creating a large amount of slack, makes the timing of the valves considerably later than it should be, with unfavorable effects upon engine power and also retards the spark, with further diminution of output. Such an accident is unlikely to happen unless through carelessness in caring for the chain drive, but slow changes in valve and ignition timing, tending to reduce engine power, occur through natural wear of chains. When something has gone wrong and has made the spark very late the engine will not speed up much, but as the throttle is opened the exhausts are noticeably loud.

GENERATOR INQUIRY

W. W. J. writes: I have a generator of the two brush type, with an external voltage regulator that appears to be either a shunt or compound wound machine, and am enclosing a rough diagram of the same. Kindly inform me if this can be altered so as to have third brush regulation, thus doing away with the external regulator.

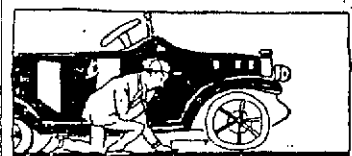

Answer: We are quite sure that it is not practicable to do this. For one reason, the shunt field in all probability would have to take the full voltage generated by the armature, and would have to be replaced to operate on the lower voltage which would be obtained between one of the main brushes and the third brush. It is also very probable that this armature and field would not have the necessary reaction effects which the third brush method requires. Special design of armature winding and pole-piece construction is required to make third brush regulation effective. You would of course have to arrange for a third brush holder, which might be bothersome. In a general way, it does not often pay to attempt to modify these small generators, because they do not cost a great deal, and the cost of the alterations would not be warranted even though success were obtained.

OIL PIPE CLOGS

T. L. asks: What is the cause of the clogging of the oil pipe in the Ford engine, and is this a common occurrence? Is there any device that can be applied to offset it, or any way in which it can be obviated?

Answer: The clogging of the pipe is due to the accumulation in it of solid material that gets into the oil, such as the sludge that forms in inferior oil after considerable use, and metallic particles worn from the moving parts. It should not occur, except at quite long intervals, if the best oil is used and fresh oil is substituted for the old at frequent intervals, the crankcase being cleaned out when this is done. There may be some device obtainable to prevent the entrance of solid particles into this pipe, but we never have heard of any such thing, and do not see how it could be applied. The only precautions that we can suggest are that you use the best oil obtainable; change it frequently; and clean out the oil pipe often enough to make its complete stoppage improbable.

Firestone Steadfast Purpose

The unswerving determination with which Arkwright labored to produce the spinning machine is paralleled in many instances throughout the course of our industrial progress.

It was such steadfast purpose that ultimately achieved a tire for which the public had long waited—the Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord.

Measuring up to the needs of today for greater dependability and economy of tire performance, this highly perfected cord has been acclaimed everywhere as a contribution of permanent importance to motorists.

A multitude of car-owners responding to the standard of value set by the Firestone Cord are showing their unwillingness to speculate further on quality of less certain dependability.
